

This do not call list is very important to me. I used to get countless calls when I got home from work. Not to mention the calls that when I did get up to get the phone they would hang up right as I was picking up the phone, because as I understand they can call up to three households at once and the two people that don't pick up first are hung up on. And then your number gets called again a little time later.

Please do not take this service from us in New Jersey.